Do not pray for easy lives.
Pray to be stronger men.

Success is not to be measured so much by the position

EMILIE ANN PATTERSON

I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good therefore that I can do or any Kindness that I can show to any human being, Let me do it now. Lead me not to deter or Neglect, it, for I shall not pass this way again.

PETER GAGNE

Speak the truth quietly and clearly;
And listen to others, even the dull
And ignorant. They too have their story.

NAOMI LOIS FIEHLER

It's hard to kiss a smile,

PATTI ANN CHRISTIAN

Having enjoyed the friendship of many people in many places for many years

I have learned that, in the main,
people are as we choose to find them;
that reason can overcome prejudice;
that knowledge can overcome ignorance;
that love can overcome hate;
that goodness can conquer evil

Dore Schary

BARBARA ANN PHILLIPS

Really we create nothing.
We merely plagiarize nature.

ROGER COULTER

"Some men see things as

Let the good times roll.

DEBRA SANTOS

We come into the world alone.
We go away the same.
But we're meant to spend the interlude between in closeness.

DARLENE STEWART

What's the earth
With all its arts, verse, music, worth —
Compared with love, found, gained and kept?
A loving heart is the truest wisdom.

THATCHER DUNI

The road ahead is different from the highway just gone down and usually better.

KATHLEEN FLEMING

MARIE CHRISTINE DOYKER

Chance and I

room to grow
And yes, we've just begun.

STEPHEN NOE

God grant me the serenity to accept the things that I cannot change,

I can, the wisdom to know the difference.

MARTHA MARGARET

Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

STEVEN BURK

I don't know what to write. I could say, "Leave my sister outta this," but that isn't very good, but then again neither is my sister. I could say something like "The world has not yet accepted motorcycles.*"

* or my mother, but then someone might take offense, like my mother.

I guess I won't say anything.

JANINE M. LIANA

In the midst of winter,
I finally learned
That there was in me
An invincible summer.

CARON C. JONES
"Jonesy"

Friendship is the greatest enrichment I have found.
There is nothing final between friends.

JAMES ROBERT
MAHONEY

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

SUSAN ELENDA ROY

The greatest use of

THOMAS GAIOTTI

KIM ANN KOTOWSKI

A man sat on his roof and looked at the stars.
Soon he could see a truth in the stars and he thought I'd like to tell everybody.
So he went to the village and he said to the people look see what I found.
But no one listened.
So he went back to his house and sat on the roof and looked at the stars and after a while he was still there and the stars were still there and he thought the truth is still there and I'd still like to share it.
So he went back to the village but this time he tried a gentle way.
— It's a beautiful day.

TERI FALKOWSKI

All that is gold does not glitter
 Not all those who wander are lost
 The old that is strong does not wither
 Deep roots are not reached by the frost
 From the ashes a fire shall be woken
 A light from the shadows shall spring
 Renewed shall be blade that was broken
 The crownless again shall be king.
 — J.R.R. Tolkien

Love ever gives, forgives, outlives;

while it lives it gives, for this is love's prerogative to give and give

STANLEY CZERPAK

CORAL ELAINE WEBBER

Spend all you have for loveliness

Ever strewn along our pathway
Travel on, & never mind

LAURIE JOHNSTON "Jo"

I don't try to comprehend life.
I only take the miracle and say
"Thanks, Lord."

MARK JENNINGS

When a man casts a tall

DANIEL COUTU

If you want a helping hand,

ROBIN LEEMANN

SUSAN JOYCE WADSWORTH

I sought my soul,
 But my soul I could not see.
 I sought my God,
 But my God eluded me.
 I sought my brother,
 And I found all three.

ELLEN CUNNINGHAM

I do my thing and you do your thing. I am not in this world to live up to your expectations. And you are not in this world to live up to mine. You are you and I am I and if by chance we find each other,
 it's beautiful.

"The Time Has Come"

"Xenophobia: The fear of the unknown. Xenophobia is a survival factor and is part of the genetic code of almost all organisms. If an organism perceives something which is unknown, it moves rapidly away because the unknown often contains dangers. Those animals who ran from the unknown lived to reproduce and transmit this instinctual fear. Those who did not were often killed, and thus did not transmit this lack of fear to offspring. Thus it is normal, and maybe even desirable, to fear the unknown. But progress would never be accomplished if it were not for those who dare the unknown; who swallow their fear and firmly march ahead."

LUCINDA BROCKETT
"Cindy"

I think if God is dead, it's because he laughed himself to death.

Everyone should hack off at least 3 times in their life — morning, noon and night.

WALTER DREWNOWSKI

RICHARD DAY

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in. I drink at it; but while I drink I see the sandy bottom and detect how shallow it is.
It's thin current slides away, but eternity remains. I would drink deeper; fish in the sky, whose bottom is pebbly with stars. I cannot count one. I know not the first letter of the alphabet. I have always been regretting that I was not as wise as the day I was born.

— Walden

SUSAN LEA WALSH
"Sue"

Happiness is like a butterfly. The more you chase it, the more it will elude you. But if you turn your attention to other things, it comes and softly sits on your shoulder.

How good is Army schooling?

Professional educators will tell you that the training and education one gets in the Army are among the best in the world. In fact, a report published by the Teachers College of Columbia University states that the Armed Forces provide one of the most comprehensive and advanced educational programs to be found anywhere, and have, in many ways, surpassed the Nation's colleges and universities in educating American youth. This is understandable, in light of the high level of technology reached by our Armed Forces and the resulting need for highly educated and trained men in almost every category.

The U.S. Army might be called the world's largest "university." More than 400,000 military personnel are engaged in formal, on-duty education. There are more than 38 military schools and literally thousands of classrooms scattered throughout the country.

This great educational program covers a whole range of subjects from the three R's to those required for a Ph.D. degree. If you want additional education, you can get it in the Army, no matter what the subject may be.

While your main job in the Army is to serve as a soldier, the Army will make every effort to help you continue your education while on active duty. It goes without saying that this will require considerable dedication, hard work and sacrifice on your part, since some of your spare time must be given over to study. But for the ambitious soldier who is determined to make every moment count in furthering his education or technical knowledge, the Army provides means and opportunities which are virtually unmatched elsewhere.
